THE SUPERIOR SERVICES (INDIA) FAMILY PENSION FUND RULES

In exercise of the powers conferred by sub-section (3) of section 96 B of the Government of India Act, the Secretary of State, with the concurrence of a majority of votes at a meeting of the Council of India held on the fifteenth day of August 1928, hereby makes the following Rules, namely :—

SECTION I

General.

1. These Rules may be called the Superior Services (India) Family Pension Fund Rules.

2. The sums contributed or paid as hereinafter prescribed shall be credited to an account entitled "the Superior Services (India) Family Pension Fund," to which shall likewise be debited the pensions or other benefits payable under these Rules. At the close of each half-year the Fund shall be credited with interest on the mean of the balances as they stood at the beginning and end of such half year at such rates as may from time to time be fixed by the Secretary of State in Council. The balance standing at any time to the credit of the Fund shall be a sterling liability charged on and payable out of the revenues of India.

3. The management of the Fund shall be vested in the Secretary of State for India in Council, who may, by alteration of these Rules, make such changes in the rates and conditions of contribution and benefit as he shall from time to time think necessary. Every such alteration shall, in the absence of provision in the Rules to the contrary, take effect from the first day of the month following the date of publication of the amendment in the Gazette of India :

Provided that no such alteration shall operate to reduce the pension payable to any person already in receipt thereof, other than the withdrawal or reduction of any increase granted temporarily.

4. (1) The Secretary of State in Council shall, from time to time, at such periods as he may determine, place the accounts of the Fund, together with statistics of the ages, births, marriages and deaths of the subscribers and of their dependants, before such Actuary or Actuaries as he may select, with instructions to examine them and report thereon.

(2) The Report of the Actuary or Actuaries shall be published in such manner as the Secretary of State in Council may direct.

5. The cost of the actuarial examination and Report aforesaid, together with all other expenses incurred in connection with the administration of the Rules, shall be born by the Secretary of State in Council.

SECTION II.

6. (1) The Rules in this Section apply to all pensionable European and Anglo-Indian officers appointed by the Secretary of State in Council on or after September 1st, 1928 to any of the services shown in the First Schedule or to any posts declared by the Secretary of State in Council to be scheduled posts for the purposes of these Rules :

Provided that any such officer appointed by the Secretary of State in Council who is a member of a service contained in the said Schedule or the holder of a scheduled post on the said date, and is then under the age of 25 years, may, at his option, elect to come under the provisions of this section of the Rules. An officer who fails to exercise this option within four months of the above date shall not be permitted to become a subscriber under the provisions of this section.

(2) A compulsory subscriber who retires from the service on a compensation pension may elect, within three months of the date of retirement, to discontinue subscription under these Rules with effect from the date of his letter signifying such election; his dependants shall thereupon cease to be entitled to any benefits under these Rules, but the subscriber may be granted a lump sum on the terms and conditions set forth in the first part of this Rule.

16. On the termination of the marriage of a compulsory subscriber by divorce or annulment, the wife of the marriage so terminated shall be entitled to no benefit under these Rules. The subscriber shall report the dissolution of the marriage within one month of the date thereof.

17. A compulsory subscriber may, at his option, at any time during his service, make further provision for his family as a voluntary subscriber under Section III of these Rules.

SECTION III.

Rules relating to Contributions and Benefits (Voluntary Membership).

18. (1) The Rules in this Section apply (a) to all compulsory subscribers who avail themselves of the provisions of Rule 17 (b) to all pensionable European or Anglo-Indian officers appointed before September 1st, 1928 by the Secretary of State in Council to services or posts classified as superior by rules made under the Government of India Act, (c) to any pensionable European or Anglo-Indian officers appointed to such superior services or posts before the 1st April 1924 by the Governor-General in Council or a Local Government and (d) to any European or Anglo-Indian officer appointed by the Secretary of State in Council before September 1st, 1928 to a post declared by the Secretary of State in Council to be a scheduled post for the purposes of these Rules. PLAGUE REGULATIONS IN FORCE IN THE PRESIDENCY TOWNS.

No. 1424.—Whereas certain parts of the Presidency of Madras are visited by, and the City of Madras is threatened with, an outbreak of the dangerous epidemic disease known as plague, and whereas the ordinary provisions of the law for the time being in force in the City are insufficient for the purpose of preventing the outbreak or spread of the disease:

In exercise of the powers conferred by section 2-A of the Epidemic Diseases Act, 1897, as amended by the Devolution Act XXXVIII of 1920, the Local Government is pleased to prescribe, in supersession of all regulations previously issued on the subject, the following temporary regulations to be observed in the City of Madras for a period of one year from the first day of October 1928:—

(1) The Local Government may, by notification in the Fort St. George Gazette, declare the City of Madras or any portion thereof in which one or more indigenous cases of plague have occurred, or in which the existence of plague among rats has been proved, to be infected with plague. In similar circumstances the Commissioner of the Corporation may notify by tom-tom and by publication in the local papers that the City or any portion thereof is infected with plague, informing the Government forthwith of the fact that he has done so.

(2) When the City or any portion of it has been declared under the preceding regulation to be infected, or when any area adjoining the City has under regulation 2 of the regulations in force outside the Presidency town been declared infected, the Commissioner may close any existing market and may appoint special places where markets may be held and may prescribe limits beyond which it shall not be lawful for persons bringing articles for sale from or to an infected area to pass.

(3) In any portion of the City which has been declared infected the Commissioner or the Health Officer with the previous sanction of the Commissioner may order the evacuation of infected houses and houses in their neighbourhood, or generally of any infected locality.

Provided that, before issuing or authorizing an order for compulsory evacuation, the Commissioner shall either provide adequate and suitable shelter within reasonable distance for the persons evicted together with the necessary water-supply and arrangements for watch and ward, or shall satisfy himself that such shelter and water-supply have been provided by private agency. The Commissioner shall also satisfy himself that the compulsory evacuation is necessary to avert the further spread of the disease, or is in the interests of the affected population taking account of climatic conditions.

The Commissioner may require all persons who evacuate their houses voluntarily, or are evicted under this regulation, to reside in such place as he may appoint.

Nothing contained in this rule shall be deemed to apply to persons who have been successfully inoculated against plague during the nine months prior to the declaration of a locality being infected or who get themselves inoculated within 24 hours of such declaration.

(4) In any portion of the City which has been declared infected the Commissioner may enter upon, occupy and use or may depute any person to enter upon, occupy and use without having resource to the provisions of the Land Acquisition Act, 1894, any building or place which is required for, and is, in the opinion of the Health Officer suitable for, any purposes connected with plague measures; provided that, if the building or place is occupied, twenty-four hours' notice in writing shall be given to the occupier or shall be conspicuously affixed on such building or place. The owner or the lessee of such building or place shall be entitled to a reasonable rent to be fixed by the Commissioner for the period during which the ground or building may be used for purposes connected with plague; and the Commissioner shall, when any building ceases to be so used, cause it to be thoroughly cleansed and, if the owner so desires whitewashed internally and externally.

(5) If the Commissioner is of opinion that the destruction of any hut or shed is necessary to prevent the spread of plague, he may take summary measures for the destruction of such hut or shed and of the materials of which it is constructed.

(6) The Commissioner may direct that any dwelling house or any landing place or railway goods shed or any place used for the storage of grain shall be inspected and that all rats found therein shall be destroyed; and to facilitate the destruction of rats may order the temporary removal of any grain or other merchandise.

(7) The Commissioner may direct that at any place in the City any consignment of grain, being conveyed by rail, road or otherwise, shall be examined, and shall, if necessary, be unloaded and exposed to the sun in such manner and for such period as he may fix.

(8) Every householder and every medical practitioner shall at once report to the Health Officer any case of plague or any case of fever with glandular swellings or any unusual mortality among rats which may come to his notice.

(9) (i) In the absence of a written contract to the contrary, every inspector, mistri, peon, watchman, coolie, scavenger or other menial servant employed to do duty in connexion with plague, shall be entitled to one month's notice before discharge, or to one month's wages in lieu thereof, unless he is discharged for misconduct or was engaged for a specified term and is discharged at the end of it. Similarly every supplier of coolies shall be entitled to one month's notice before his coolies are discharged.

(ii) No such inspector, mistri, peon, watchman, coolie, scavenger or other menial servant shall, in the absence of a written contract authorizing him to do so, and without reasonable cause, resign his employment or absent himself from his duties without giving one month's notice or shall neglect or refuse to perform any of his duties. In like manner no supplier of coolies or other menial servants shall withdraw his coolies or servants without giving one month's notice.

(10) When in consequence of the exercise of the powers conferred by or under these regulations any property is damaged or destroyed, the Commissioner shall pay to the owner by way of compensation such sum as he may consider sufficient to cover the cost of repairing the damage or replacing the property destroyed.

NOTE.—(1) The Plague Regulations being orders formally made and issued by Government under the Epidemic Diseases Act, all sanction is required as a condition precedent to prosecution for disobeying them (Judgment of the High Court in Criminal Appeal No. 841 of 1899).

(2) By Command Order No. 647, dated 13th November 1896, all ranks in the Madras Command have been directed to obey the Plague Regulations, and any infringement of them is punishable as a military offence. Military Pensioners have been warned (Superintendent's Circular No. 11, dated 14th December 1896) that any disobedience or wilful neglect of the regulations or obstruction offered to any official on plague duty will be treated as a breach of the good conduct required by Government as a condition of the continuation of their pensions, and that any pensioner being guilty thereof will be liable to have his pension stopped forthwith and the same reduced or permanently withdrawn.

Deputy Secretary to Government.

I.—General Rules

1. The President of a District Secondary Education Board shall have power to hold elections to the Board in anticipation of vacancies that are about to occur owing to effluxion of time.

2. No election to the Board shall be invalid by reason of the inability of any voter to vote at such election through absence or any other cause, or by reason of the existence of any vacancy among the number of persons entitled to vote at such election or in the case of a postal vote, on account of the loss in the post of any notice or voting paper.

3. The President shall report to the local Government the names of members elected to the Board for publication in the Gazette. Save as otherwise expressly provided the term of office of an elected member shall commence from the date on which his election is notified in the Gazette or from the date of occurrence of the vacancy in respect of which the election is held, whichever is later.

4. Members elected or nominated shall hold office for a period of three years, provided however that a member elected in his capacity as a member of a District Board, Municipal Council, or the Corporation of Madras or as the representative of the management or as the headmaster or a member of the staff of a school shall hold office so long only within that period as he continues to hold that capacity.

A member elected or nominated at a casual vacancy shall hold office so long only as the member in whose place he is elected or nominated would have been entitled to hold office if the vacancy had not occurred.

5. The quorum at any meeting shall be three, or one-third of the number of members then on the Board, whichever is greater.

6. (i) Any member may resign his office by a letter addressed to the President. A President may resign his office by a letter addressed to the Director of Public Instruction.

II.—Rules for election by District Boards and Municipal Councils and the Corporation of Madras.

1. The President shall intimate to the District Board, or Municipal Council concerned, or the Corporation of Madras, the number of seats on the Board which it has to fill up by election and shall call upon it to report the name or names of the candidates elected.

2. The President or Chairman, as the case may be, of the District Board or Municipal Council, or the President of the Corporation of Madras shall thereupon summon a meeting of that body, for the purpose of proceeding with the election.

3. Every candidate for election shall be proposed by one member and seconded by another. The President or Chairman or the presiding member above mentioned shall then open the box and count the votes in the presence of the members.

8. The candidate who obtains the largest number of votes, and, if the vacancies are more than one, as many of the candidates at the top of the poll as there are vacancies shall be declared to have been duly elected. The decision of the President on any question relating to such elections shall be final.

Provided that where the President is himself a candidate for election in a particular constituency his functions under these rules shall be discharged by the District Educational Officer in respect of the election in that constituency.

2. An electoral roll for each of the above constituencies shall be maintained in the office of the President. It shall contain the following particulars:—

Managements of schools.—The name of the management and the name and address and other necessary particulars of its representative.

Headmasters and staff.—The elector's name, father or karnavan's name, address and any other necessary particulars; provided, however, that in the case of any person who has objection to giving out the name of his father, the father's name may be omitted.

NOTE.—Every teacher, certified or uncertified (whether master or mistress), pandit and instructor holding a permanent appointment in a secondary school in the district in which he is employed for the time being shall be qualified as an elector.

3. The electoral roll shall be prepared once in three years. The District Educational Officer shall intimate to the President all changes in the personnel of the management, the headmaster or the staff of an institution.

4. A copy of the electoral roll with further changes, if any, noted thereon shall be sent to the managements of schools under private agencies and to the headmasters of schools under local bodies not less than two months before the month in which the elections are to be held for vacancies due to efflux of time. The management or the headmaster concerned shall arrange for the electoral rolls to be affixed in a conspicuous place in the school.

5. Any person who claims to be entitled to be registered as an elector and who is not entered, or is entered in an incorrect manner or with incorrect particulars and any person whose name is on the roll and who objects to the inclusion of his own name or of the name of any other person whose name is on the roll may prefer a claim or objection to the President not later than ten days after the despatch of the roll for publication. The claims or objections should give full particulars of the qualifications claimed or of the grounds of objections as the case may be.

The President shall hear the claims and objections on a day fixed for the purpose and his orders thereon shall be final. He shall also correct the rolls in accordance with those orders and intimate such corrections to the managements and headmasters concerned.

6. Only persons whose names are on the electoral roll published under rule 4 with the corrections, if any, made under rules 5 and 8 shall be eligible for election and qualified to vote; but a member of the staff of a school who is also the representative of the management shall be entitled to vote only either as a member of the staff or as a representative of the management, as he elects. Such a member may also be a candidate for election but only in the capacity in which he elects to exercise his vote.

7. Where a vacancy occurs the President shall issue a notice thereof to the managements of schools under private agencies and to the headmasters of schools under local bodies. The notice shall be affixed in a conspicuous place in the school. Nomination of every candidate shall be by means of a nomination paper in Form I prescribed in the appendix. Copy of the form may be obtained on application from the office of the President.

Every nomination paper shall be accompanied by the consent in writing of the nominee to serve as a member if elected and must reach the President not later than ten days after the issue of the notice.

8. If there is only one nominee for any one electorate the President shall declare such nominee to be elected.

If the number of nominees exceeds one an election shall be held.

In cases where managements are unable to come to an agreement as to the proposing and seconding of candidates for election, the successful candidate will be determined by lot.

9. Not less than 14 days before the date fixed for the poll the President shall notify to the managements of schools under private agencies and the headmasters of schools under local bodies

(a) the names of candidates who are duly nominated, and

(b) the day and hour at or before which the voting papers shall reach the President and the day and hour when the scrutiny and the counting of votes will begin. This notification shall be affixed in a conspicuous place in the school.

10. Not less than 14 days before the date fixed for the poll, the President shall issue by post a declaration paper in Form II and a voting paper in Form III to each elector, to the address entered against his name in the electoral roll.

In the voting papers the names of the candidates shall be placed in alphabetical order.

11. Before the declaration papers and voting papers are issued, the President shall have the serial number and name of each elector as entered in the electoral roll noted on the declaration paper.

12. With the declaration paper and the voting paper the President shall send a cover addressed to himself in Form IV bearing on its face the serial number of the voter, and an envelope marked "voting paper," and "M." "H." or "S" according as the voting paper relates to managements, headmasters or staff, and a letter in Form V.

13. Each elector upon receipt of the papers, shall, if he desires to vote in the election, sign the declaration in the declaration paper and record his vote on the voting paper.

14. The voting paper shall be folded up and returned to the President in accordance with the directions thereon given.

15. Every candidate or a representative appointed by him in writing shall be at liberty to be present at the scrutiny and counting of votes.

16. On the day and at the hour appointed for the scrutiny and counting of votes for each constituency the President shall open all the covers received, reject all votes not satisfying the directions given in the letter in Form V appended, mix the rest together and count the votes obtained by each candidate nominated. The candidate who has obtained the largest number of votes shall be declared elected. If there is an equality of votes between any two or more candidates, the President shall decide by drawing lots which candidate shall be deemed to have been elected.

17. (1) No election shall be called in question except by an election petition signed by at least three registered electors.

(2) The petition shall contain a statement in concise form of the material facts on which the petitioners rely and the particulars of any material irregularity or other specific grounds for setting aside the election.

(3) The petition shall reach the President within eight days from the date of declaration of the result of the election.

(4) The President shall, with the assistance of the District Educational Officer, hold an enquiry into the petition and pass such orders as he deems fit and all such orders shall be final.

1. As soon as the Boards are reconstituted, the Secretary shall convene a meeting of the Board for the purpose of electing a President.

2. The special meeting shall be presided over by one chosen from among the members present on the occasion.

3. A candidate for the office of President must be proposed by one member and seconded by another.

4. If there is only one duly nominated candidate he shall be deemed to have been elected. If there are two or more candidates the votes of the members present at the meeting shall be taken in such a manner as the presiding member may determine and the candidate securing the largest number of votes shall be considered to have been elected.

5 If there is an equality of votes between any two or more candidates the presiding member shall decide by drawing lots which candidate shall be deemed to have been elected and the name of the candidate thus elected shall be reported to Government by the presiding member for publication in the Gazette.

The following Bill was introduced in the Legislative Assembly on the 4th September 1928 :—

LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY BILL, No. 24 OF 1928.

A Bill to amend the Indian Trade Unions Act, 1926 for a certain purpose.

WHEREAS it is expedient to amend the Indian Trade Unions XVI of 1926. Act, 1926, for the purpose hereinafter appearing; It is hereby enacted as follows :—

1. This Act may be called the Indian Trade Unions (Amendment) Act, 192 . Short title.

XVI of 1926. 2. For section 11 of the Indian Trade Unions Act, 1926, the following section shall be substituted, namely :— Substitution of new section for section 11, Act XVI of 1926.

"11 (1) Any person aggrieved by any refusal of the Registrar to register a Trade Union or by the withdrawal or Appeal.

cancellation of a certificate of registration may, within such period as may be prescribed, appeal—

(a) where the head office of the Trade Union is situated within the limits of a Presidency-town or of Rangoon, to the High Court, or

(b) where the head office is situated in any other area, to such Court, not inferior to the Court of an additional or assistant Judge of a principal Civil Court of original jurisdiction, as the Local Government may appoint in this behalf for that area.

(2) The appellate Court may dismiss the appeal, or pass an order directing the Registrar to register the Union and to issue a certificate of registration under the provisions of section 9 or setting aside the order for withdrawal or cancellation of the certificate, as the case may be, and the Registrar shall comply with such order.

(3) For the purpose of an appeal under sub-section (1) an appellate Court shall, so far as may be, follow the same procedure and have the same powers as it follows and has when trying a suit under the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908, and may direct by whom the whole or any part of the costs of the appeal shall be paid, and such costs shall be recovered as if they had been awarded in a suit under the said Code. V of 1908.

(4) In the event of the dismissal of an appeal by any Court appointed under clause (b) of sub-section (1), the person aggrieved shall have a right of appeal to the High Court, and the High Court shall, for the purpose of such appeal, have all the powers of an appellate Court under sub-sections (2) and (3), and the provisions of those sub-sections shall apply accordingly."

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

The existing section 11 of the Indian Trade Unions Act, 1926, which provides for appeals against the decision of the Registrar appointed under section 3 admits of some doubt in two respects, namely :—

(i) It does not indicate clearly whether the first appeal lies to the Judge appointed for the area within which the Registrar's office is situated or to the Judge appointed for the area within which the head office of the trade union is situated. The amendment is intended to make it clear that the latter is the competent court.

(ii) It does not indicate clearly what Judge may be appointed to hear appeals in the Presidency-towns and in Rangoon. The amendment is designed to make it clear that in such areas the appeal lies to the High Court and that there is no second appeal.

The opportunity has been taken to define clearly the powers of the High Court in second appeals

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

The outbreak of industrial unrest on a large scale was a feature of the period succeeding the close of the War and led the Government of India to explore the possibility of providing some machinery for the settlement of industrial disputes. The inquiries made with this purpose in 1920 led to the conclusion that in the conditions then existing, legislation for this purpose was not likely to be effective.

2. The succeeding years saw a distinct change in the position by reason of the growth of organizations of industrial workers and of the increasing influence exercised by public opinion on the course of disputes. And in 1924 the Government of India prepared a draft Bill "for enabling the investigation and settlement of trade disputes" and circulated it in order to ascertain the views of those directly interested and of the public generally on the subject. As a result of the inquiries made in 1924-25 and the experience which has become available since that period, the Government of India are satisfied that legislation for the prevention and settlement of trade disputes is likely to prove of considerable value; and the present Bill has been prepared for this purpose.

3. The main part of the Bill falls into three parts. Clauses 3 to 14 relate to the establishment of tribunals for the investigation and settlement of trade disputes. This part of the Bill is based generally on the British Industrial Courts Act of 1919, and its detailed provisions are adopted for the most part from clauses in that Act. The main difference is that, whereas the British Act sets up a Standing Industrial Court, the Conciliation Boards which the Bill proposes to establish are intended to be appointed ad hoc like the Courts of Inquiry, in order to deal with particular disputes. The object of Courts of Inquiry which will ordinarily be composed of persons having no direct interest in the dispute will be to investigate and report on such questions connected with the dispute as may be referred to them. The object of Boards of Conciliation, which will ordinarily include representatives of the parties to a dispute, will be to secure a settlement of the dispute. Both Courts of Inquiry and Boards of Conciliation will be able to enforce attendance of witnesses and the production of documents, and their reports are to be published. Neither party will be under any obligation to accept the findings of the Court or the advice of the Board; and in cases where the dispute is not brought to an end during the deliberations of the tribunal that has been appointed, reliance is placed on the force of public opinion which will be enabled by the publication of the report of the tribunal to arrive at just conclusions on the merits of the dispute.

4. The second part of the Bill consists of clause 15 which relates to public utility services. "Public utility services" is defined in clause 2 (f), and it will be observed that, in accordance with this definition, clause 15 is only applicable to such railway services as have been notified by the Governor General in Council. The clause makes it a penal offence for workers employed on monthly wages in public utility services to strike without previous notice, and also provides heavier penalties for persons abetting such an offence. The clause is based on the principle that persons whose work is vital to the welfare of the community generally should not be entitled to enter into a strike before sufficient time has been given to examine the merits of their grievances and to explore the possibilities of arriving at a peaceful settlement. Provisions of a somewhat similar type already exist in the Indian Post Office Act and in a number of Municipal Acts in India, and the principle is one which is widely accepted in other countries.

5. Clauses 16 to 20 contain certain special provisions relating to illegal strikes and lock-outs. These clauses follow closely the provisions of sections 1, 2 and 7 of the British Trade Disputes and Trade Unions Act, 1927. They are applicable only in the case of strikes and lock-outs which satisfy both of two conditions; in the first place, the strike or lock-out must have other objects than the mere furtherance of a trade dispute within the industry to which the strikers or employers belong, and, in the second place, the strike or lock-out must be designed to coerce Government either directly or by inflicting hardship on the community. If these conditions are satisfied, the strike or lock-out becomes illegal. Persons furthering the strike or lock-out are liable to punishment and are deprived of the protection granted to them by the Indian Trade Unions Act, while persons refusing to take part in it are protected from trade union disabilities to which they might otherwise be subjected.

9. In Schedule IV to the said Act, for the words and letters "clause (a) or clause (b)" the word and figure "sub-section (1)" shall be substituted.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

The Workmen's Compensation Act, 1923, came into force on the 1st July 1924. Since then a number of amendments have suggested themselves or have been proposed by Commissioners for Workmen's Compensation and Local Governments. Some of the latter proposals involve the modification of the principles underlying the present Act or of its more important features. So far as these are concerned, the Government of India consider it advisable to consult Local Governments and the public generally before forming conclusions. For the present it is proposed to limit the revision of the Act to the amendment of those sections or parts of sections which are admittedly defective and to the introduction of changes which are likely to raise no important controversial points and which will be generally recognized as improvements. The proposed amendments are explained in the Notes on Clauses below

NOTES ON CLAUSES.

Clause 2.—The definition of 'workman' in existing section 2 (1) (n) of the Act includes persons who are employed by a Railway administration in connection with the service of a railway, but excludes persons employed on similar work by a person fulfilling a contract with a Railway administration. It was never intended that contractors' employees should be outside the scope of the Act on Railways ; they come within the Act in all the other classes of employment to which the law extends. The amendment seeks to remove an obvious defect in the law.

Clause 3.—Compensation to workmen employed in the construction, repair or demolition of a building or hedge was originally restricted on grounds of expediency to cases of death and permanent total disablement as it was feared that any general application of the Act to the building trades might lead to administrative difficulties Experience of the working of the Act has shown that no such result need be anticipated, especially in view of the restrictions imposed by clause (vi) of Schedule II of the Act. The amendment seeks to remove the discrimination contained in the existing proviso (c) to sub-section (1) of section 3 of the Act against such workmen.

Clause 4.—(1) Cases have been reported in which the application of the existing section 5 (b) gives results which are wide of the true average wages in the case of workmen whose period of service immediately preceding the accident is less than a month. The amendment seeks to remove this anomaly.

(2) The existing section 5 prescribes the manner in which the monthly wages of a workman shall be calculated for the purpose of section 4. The amendment is designed to extend the same method to the calculation of wages for the purposes of clause (n) of sub-section (1) of section 2 and of sub-section (3) of that section.

Clause 5.—Sub-section (1) of section 8 as at present worded is liable to misinterpretation. The amendment seeks to clarify the real intention which is that all payments to dependants of the deceased workman must be made through the Commissioner and not directly to the dependants. The opportunity has been taken to provide that any lump sum payable as compensation to a minor should also be paid similarly through the Commissioner. The revised section further provides for—

(a) the protection of lump sums payable to a woman or to a person (other than a minor) under any legal disability,

(b) the prevention of deposits of trivial amounts, and

(c) the investment of sums payable as compensation to women.

It is also proposed to remove the apparent inconsistency between the existing sub-section (3) and the existing sub-section (4) and between sub-section (1) which might be read as requiring the Commissioner to pay the full sum to a dependant, and sub-section (4) which enables him to deduct funeral expenses.

The 15th August, 1928.

Clause 6.—The amendment is designed to vest Commissioners with the same powers in respect of the prosecution of persons for perjury as are possessed by Civil Courts generally.

Clause 7.—The existing sub-section (1) of section 28 provides inter alia for the registration of agreements which settle the compensation payable to persons under legal disability. The provision is not necessary in the case of persons who are over 15 years of age and suffer from no other legal disability; the Act treats such persons as adults for purposes of compensation. The amendment also provides for the repeal of proviso (b) which has in practice remained a dead letter.

Clause 8.—(1) The application of the Workmen's Compensation Act to dock labourers, etc., is governed partly by existing clause (p) of Schedule II of the Act and partly by a notification issued by the Governor General in Council under section 2 (3) of the Act. The two provisions are not entirely consistent, as the former applies only to places where steam, water or other mechanical power or electrical power is used, whereas the latter imposes no such restriction. The revised clause consolidates the provisions of the existing clause (v) and of the notification and eliminates the condition relating to the use of power. The revised clause will now include all persons employed for the purpose of loading, unloading, fuelling, constructing, repairing, demolishing, cleaning or painting a ship irrespective of the place where the ship may be.

(2) The amendment to clause (vii) of this Schedule is designed to include in the scope of the Act persons employed in setting up, repairing, maintaining or taking down a post or standard supporting an overhead electric cable. Persons employed in setting up, etc., posts supporting telegraph and telephone lines are already included in the existing clause (vii) and the omission of the former class of persons was unintentional.

(3) Certain classes of workmen who have been brought within the scope of the Act by notifications issued under sub-section (3) of section 2 of the Workmen's Compensation Act have also been included in the Schedule.

The following Bill was introduced in the Legislative Assembly on the 4th September 1928:—

LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY BILL NO. 27 OF 1928.

A Bill further to amend the Indian Succession Act, 1925, for a certain purpose.

WHEREAS it is expedient further to amend the Indian Succession Act, 1925, for the purpose hereinafter appearing; It is hereby enacted as follows:— XXXIX of 1925.

Short title. 1. This Act may be called the Indian Succession (Amendment) Act, 192 .

Amendment of section 213, Act XXXIX of 1925. 2. In sub-section (2) of section 213 of the Indian Succession Act, 1925, for the word and figures "section 57" the words, figures and brackets "sub-section (1) of section 57" shall be substituted. XXXIX of 1925.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

The Indian Succession (Amendment) Act, 1926 (XXXVII of 1926) was passed with a view to give effect to the recommendation of the Civil Justice Committee that all wills made by Hindus, Buddhists, Sikhs and Jains, even in areas outside those where section 57 of Act XXXIX of 1925 is in force, should be required to be reduced to writing, signed and attested. But it was not intended that the requirement of probate or letters of administration should apply to such wills. The new provision was inserted as clause (g) of section 57. No corresponding change was, however, made in section 213 exempting the wills specified in clause (g) of section 57 from the requirement of probate or letters of administration. The present Bill gives effect to the original intention and excludes wills falling under clause (g) of section 57 from the operation of clause (f) of section 213 by amendment of sub-section (f) of the latter section.

THE SECOND SCHEDULE.

REPEALS.

(See section 3.)

Year.	Number.	Title or short title.
1900	IX	An Act to provide for the Court fee payable on certain Applications to the Court of the Financial Commissioner of the Punjab
1927	XII	The Repealing Act, 1927.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

The object of the Bill is to make a few necessary amendments of a formal nature in certain enactments and to repeal certain spent or useless matter in the Statute-book.

Reasons for the proposed amendments and repeals are explained as follows :—

(1) The Indian Christian Marriage Act, 1872 (XV of 1872).—The amendment is made with a view to remove doubts as to the interpretation of section 37. Marriages are not solemnised under Part I of the Act. Section 5 specifies the categories of persons who are competent to solemnise marriages. The reference to marriages solemnised under Part I in Section 37 indicates marriages solemnised by persons specified in clauses (1) and (2) of section 5. This is made clear by the proposed amendment. The reference to clause (3) of section 5 will include marriages solemnised under Part III of the Act.

(2) The General Clauses Act, 1897 (X of 1897).—Section 16 has been amended to make it clear that the authority for the time being empowered to make an appointment has the power of suspending or dismissing a person appointed, in the exercise of the same power, by another authority. The other amendments are necessitated by the passing of the Government of India Act of 1919.

(3) The Indian Stamp Act, 1899 (II of 1899).—The proposed clause 25 of section 2 gives statutory effect to the existing practice of granting by notifications to non-combatants enrolled under the Indian Army Act, 1911 (VIII of 1911), the same exemptions from stamp duty as are enjoyed by combatants similarly enrolled. The amendments to articles 47 and 53 of Schedule I give statutory effect to exemptions which have been regularly granted by notifications. The other amendments are purely formal.

(4) The Code of Civil Procedure, 1908 (V of 1908).—The amendment states in precise terms the fact, implicit in section 4 of the Code, that the Letters Patents of the High Courts override the provisions of section 93 of the Code.

(5) The Indian Merchant Shipping Act, 1923 (XXI of 1923).—The first amendment merely corrects an error in a heading. The second amendment clarifies the drafting of clause (m) of section 227.

(6) The repeals are formal. The First Act repealed is spent: and the Second, a Repealing Act, is itself repealed according to current practice in order to abbreviate the Statute-book.

The 1st September 1928. L. GRAHAM.

The following Bill was introduced in the Legislative Assembly on the 4th September 1928 :—

LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY BILL No. 29 OF 1928.

A Bill further to amend the Indian Penal Code for a certain purpose.

WHEREAS it is expedient further to amend the Indian Penal Code for the purpose hereinafter appearing; It is hereby enacted as follows :— XLV 1860.

Short title. 1. This Act may be called the Indian Penal Code (Amendment) Bill, 1928.

Amendment of section 505, Act XLV of 1860. 2. In section 505 of the Indian Penal Code, after clause (c) the following clause shall be inserted, namely :— XLV 1860.

(d) with intent to promote, or which is likely to promote, unfriendly relations between His Majesty's Government and the Government of any Foreign State."

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

This Bill is designed to fill a dangerous gap in the Indian law, the existence of which has recently been revealed. There is no provision in the Indian Penal Code which penalises statements made with the intention of, or which are likely to have the effect of, interfering with the peaceful relations between India and a foreign country. The Bill adds a clause to section 505 of the Indian Penal Code, under which prosecution cannot be undertaken without sanction under section 196 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898. The benefit of the existing exception under section 505 will of course be available to persons charged under the clause added by this Bill.

The 29th August 1928. DENYS BRAY.

The following Bill was introduced in the Legislative Assembly on the 4th September 1928 :—

LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY BILL No 30 OF 1928.

A Bill to provide for the protection of the match industry.

WHEREAS it is expedient, in pursuance of the policy of discriminating protection of industries in British India with due regard to the well-being of the community, to provide for the protection of the match industry; It is hereby enacted as follows :—

Short title.

1. This Act may be called the Match Industry (Protection) Act, 1928.

Amendment of Schedule II, Act VIII of 1894.

2 In the Second Schedule to the Indian Tariff Act, 1894,—

(1) Items Nos. 46, 46A and 46B shall be omitted; and

"MISCELLANEOUS.

MATCHES, UNDIPPED SPLINTS AND VENEERS.

157	MATCHES—
	(1) In boxes containing on the average not more than 100 matches.	Per gross of boxes ..	One rupee and eight annas.
	(2) In boxes containing on the average more than 100 matches.	For every 25 matches or fraction thereof in each box, per gross of boxes.	Six annas.
158	UNDIPPED SPLINTS such as are ordinarily used for match making.	Pound	Four annas and six pies.
159	VENEERS such as are ordinarily used for making boxes, including boxes and parts of boxes made of such veneers.	Pound	Six annas."

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

In their Report regarding the grant of protection to the match industry, the Tariff Board has recommended that the existing rate of import duty on matches should be maintained and converted into a protective duty. The Government of India have accepted this recommendation, and the object of this Bill is to give effect to it.

2. It is also proposed to convert the existing import duties on undipped splints and veneers into protective duties. Unless this be done the protective duty on matches will not be effective.

G. RAINY.

Simla, the 29th August 1928.

The following Bill was introduced in the Legislative Assembly on the 4th September 1928 :—

LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY BILL No. 31 OF 1928.

A Bill further to amend the Indian Income-tax Act, 1922, for a certain purpose.

WHEREAS it is expedient further to amend the Indian Income-tax Act, 1922, for the purpose hereinafter appearing; It is hereby enacted as follows :— XI of 1922.

Short title. 1. This Act may be called the Indian Income-tax (Amendment) Act, 1928.

Amendment of section 5, Act XI of 1922. 2. In sub-section (3) of section 5 of the Indian Income-tax Act, 1922, the words "after consideration of any recommendation made by the Local Government in this behalf" shall be omitted. XI of 1922.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

Section 5 (3) of the Indian Income-tax Act, 1922 (XI of 1922), requires the Government of India to consult the Local Governments concerned before it makes an appointment to a particular Commissionership of Income-tax. The taking over by the Government of India of the administration of the Act is far advanced, and they now desire to create an all-India cadre of Commissioners of Income-tax. They consequently propose that the above mentioned provision should be abolished. This proposal has received the assent of all the Local Governments except one.

B. N. MITRA.

The 25th August 1928

The following Bill was introduced in the Legislative Assembly on the 4th September 1928 :—

LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY BILL No. 32 OF 1928.

A Bill further to amend the Madras Salt Act, 1889, for a certain purpose.

WHEREAS it is expedient further to amend the Madras Salt Act, 1889, for the purpose hereinafter appearing; It is hereby enacted as follows :— Mad. Act IV of 1889.

Short title. 1. This Act may be called the Madras Salt (Amendment) Act, 192 .

Amendment of section 49, Mad. Act IV of 1889. 2. To section 49 of the Madras Salt Act, 1889 (hereinafter referred to as the said Act), the following paragraph shall be added, namely :— Mad. Act IV of 1889.

"If the officer making the arrest has been empowered in this behalf by general or special order of the Central Board of Revenue, and sufficient bail be tendered for the appearance of the person arrested before the Inspector, the officer shall admit such person to bail."

3. In section 53 of the said Act, after the word and figures "section 47" the words and figures "or section 49" shall be inserted.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

Section 49 of the Madras Salt Act, 1889, empowers certain officers to arrest in any public thoroughfare or open place other than a dwelling place any person found committing an offence under that Act. But the provisions of the Act are such that, if the officer making the arrest be not an Inspector, he has not the power to admit to bail the person arrested, but must forward the person arrested to the Inspector of the Circle in which the arrest is made, or, if that officer is more than ten miles from the place of arrest, to the nearest police station. It is proposed to incorporate in the Act provisions enabling any officer making an arrest under section 49 to grant bail, provided he has been empowered in that behalf by the Central Board of Revenue.

Amendment of section 53, Mad. Act IV of 1889.

25*th August* 1928. B. N. MITRA.

The following Report of the Select Committee on the Bill to regulate marriages of children amongst the Hindus as reported by the Select Committee was presented to the Legislative Assembly on the 13th September 1928.—

We, the undersigned, Members of the Select Committee to which the Bill to regulate marriages of children amongst the Hindus as reported by the Select Committee was recommitted have now considered the Bill and the papers noted in the margin. We have also heard a representative of the Child Marriage Protest Conference (South Arcot District) who appeared in person before us. We have now the honour to submit this our Report with the Bill as amended by us annexed thereto.

Papers Nos. I, II and III to the Bill as reported by the Select Committee.

2. We have considered the Bill and the opinions in considerable detail, and a number of matters were discussed to which we do not think it necessary to refer in this report, as no serious difference among the members of our Committee was disclosed in regard to them. We shall, therefore, refer only to the decisions which either have resulted in an amendment of the Bill or have been arrived at by a vote of the majority of the Committee.

Clause 2.—We considered a suggestion that the minimum age to determine whether a female is a child for the purposes of sub-clause (a) should be reduced to 11 and another suggestion that it should be reduced to 12 years. The Committee, however, were emphatically of opinion that any such reduction would nullify the whole object of the Bill.

Clause 5.—We considered that this clause, as originally drafted by the Select Committee, would include within its scope a betrothal ceremony which, though it might be a necessary preliminary to a marriage, would not constitute a marriage without a further ceremony.

We are further of opinion that the clause would spread the net too wide by including too large a number of persons, and that it is only necessary to penalise the person who actually officiates in that part of the ceremony which finally renders the marriage indissoluble.

We consider it necessary to exempt any person who has officiated at a child marriage but who can prove to the Court that he had taken reasonable precautions to satisfy himself that the contracting parties were over the minimum age.

Finally, we negatived a proposal to re-insert a provision on the lines of clause 6 of the Bill as introduced, whereby a guardian could obtain a certificate enabling him to celebrate a child marriage on the ground that he conscientiously believes the marriage to be enjoined by his religion.

Clause 6.—We have provided that the punishment of imprisonment shall not be inflicted in the case of a female parent or guardian; and we rejected a proposal for the omission of the presumption contained in the second part of this clause, as we consider the presumption reasonable in itself and necessary to enable the provisions of the clause to have their proper effect.

Clause 11.—We rejected two proposals in regard to this clause; one that the bond should be a personal bond without sureties, and the other that security should not be required in the case of a complaint made with the sanction of a Magistrate competent to try the offence. The latter provision might, we consider, lead to two separate inquiries and unnecessary recapitulation of evidence.

3. We have made a few drafting changes to which it is unnecessary for us to refer in detail, and we have rejected a proposal which is to be found amongst the opinions upon the Bill that the Act should be applicable locally by notification of the Local Government. We think that a provision of this kind would greatly facilitate evasion of the law by enabling a child marriage to be conducted in a province in which the law was not in force, although the contracting parties belonged to a province to which it had been applied.

MINUTES OF DISSENT.

The principle of the Bill affects the personal law of the Musalmans and therefore it should not be applicable to the Musalmans at all. I am therefore of opinion that the Musalmans should be exempted from the operation of the Bill.

MUHAMMAD RAFIQUE.

I think that the provision relating to the throwing of the burden of proving want of knowledge on the person who operates at a marriage is not justifiable. The burden should always be on the prosecution. I am also not in agreement with the provision that the parent or guardian should prove that he did not fail negligently to prevent a child marriage of his son or daughter or ward.

The provision relating to the furnishing of sureties is another matter where I feel myself unable to agree. I would further favour a provision for registration of marriages.

THAKURDAS BHARGAVA.

I agree to the report of the Committee with the following observations:—After the report of the last Select Committee the Bill was re-circulated for eliciting opinion thereon. I have carefully gone through the opinions collected from representative quarters, and the Committee have ascertained the orthodox South Indian view in the matter in other ways. There is no denying the probability that there are influential sections among our people who may be out to arrest the progress of the operation of the Act, and this will mean extreme hardship to many. People may be in danger of being compelled to lose occupation and means of their livelihood. I may here, for instance, indicate the case of many temple priests. This seems more probable when in many cases leaders of our community have nothing to do with marriage or family life. I should like to put in a clause making it illegal for people, especially people having no family life, to associate themselves in any attempt at excommunication of the man performing marriage under provisions of this Act. But under the circumstances such a provision may not be possible.

There may be other instances also where a poor man may require to marry two girls together, or a dying parent may like to see the child married before death for various reasons, and other cases of like nature.

I, therefore, feel that some room should be given to such hard cases. It is not however easy to give an exhaustive list of these cases as a schedule to this Act. Then the question arises as to the authority competent to deal with such hard cases and give relief in the best exercise of its discretion. It seems to me that such power should not be entrusted to a Criminal Court which is not quite in touch with cases of hardship of various kinds. I will therefore entrust the power to the principal court of civil jurisdiction in the districts and the City civil court in the metropolis or a court corresponding to it in the provinces. I wish that a general provision be made to the following effect:

Nothing in this Act shall apply to a case of child marriage where the girl married is not below 12 years of age and where the contracting parties or the parents or guardians have obtained the sanction of the principal court of civil jurisdiction upon an application made prior to the solemnization of the marriage stating the circumstances under which they are compelled to solemnize the marriage the non-performance of which would mean hardship to the girl or her family.

In section 9, I think the period should be less than one year, at most 3 months.

NILAKANTHA DAS.

I sign the report subject to the observation that an overwhelming majority of the Musalmans, including eminent and distinguished Ulemas, is strongly against the application of this Bill to the Muslim Community on the ground that it interferes with their religion.

MUHAMMAD YAKUB.

Subject to note of dissent that the Bill as now drafted is shorn of all utility and amounts to a pious resolution at social reform.

H. A. J. GIDNEY.

I do not agree with the majority of my colleagues on two important points. The proposal to make marriages of girls below the age of 14 years punishable by law has rightly roused much opposition among the large body of orthodox Hindus. I urged that the age should be fixed at 11 so that a law to restrain child marriages might be passed with the unanimous support of all sections of the community. Kumar Ganganand Sinha proposed that 12 should be substituted for 14. But that also was rejected by the majority. If even 12 is fixed as the age marriages below which shall be punishable, it is possible that a section of orthodox opinion will be reconciled to it. But in view of the fact that marriage is a religious sacrament among Hindus, and in view of the belief which has prevailed on the question of the age of marriage among them for a very long time, to make a marriage above the age of 12 and below the age of 14 punishable by law will be a violent interference with the Hindu religion which I consider it my duty strongly to oppose. We must not forget that even in England the legal marriageable age for girls is 12 years. I think we should leave the raising of the age of the marriage of girls beyond 12 to the greater spread of education and of ideas of social and physical well-being among the people. Their effects are already visible and should not be ignored.

I am also opposed to imprisonment being awarded as a punishment to any person who offends against the provisions of the proposed law. I expect that if the Government and the public will co-operate to have a knowledge of the provisions of the Act made universally known among the people, the fear of the infliction of a fine which may extend up to a thousand rupees and the opprobrium of being exposed to a prosecution will act as effective deterrents to prevent people from celebrating child marriages in contravention of the provisions of the proposed law. In any event, I would not provide imprisonment as an alternative punishment for the first few years of the new legislation.

M. M. MALAVIYA.

The 15th September 1928.

I think 14 years will be considered too high to be the minimum marriageable age for girls by a large section of the Hindu community. I am aware of the fact that communities like the Muhammadan, the Christian, the Parsi and even a considerable section of the Hindu community to all of whom this Bill has now been made applicable, will regard the declaration of the legal age for marriage of girls below 14 years as a retrograde measure and a possible incentive to reduce the age of marriage in their respective societies. But I am also not oblivious of the very strong opinion in favour of pre-puberty marriage, held by a very large section of the Hindu community. They look upon marriage as a sacrament; and, generally speaking, to them, the celebration of marriage does not necessarily mean the consummation of marriage.

We see that the Hindu Mahasabha having within its fold various sections of the Hindu community fixes 12 years as the minimum age for the marriage of girls and so does the All-India Sanatana Dharma Mahasabha representing the most orthodox section of the Hindu community. Its resolution No. 7 passed at its sitting held at Allahabad in January 1928, under the presidency of Pandit Madan Mohan Malaviya, when translated into English will read thus:—

7. (a) "In the opinion of this Sanatana Dharma Mahasabha no marriage of a Hindu boy should take place till he is 18 years of age.

(b) This Mahasabha exhorts the Hindu community that the marriage of girls should never be celebrated before they have entered upon their 12th year."

But in the subsequent resolution No. 8, it clearly indicates that the consummation of marriage should not take place before the girl attains her 16th year.

The translation of the resolution is as follows:—

8. "In the opinion of this Sanatana Dharma Mahasabha, it is extremely necessary in order to make the community physically and religiously strong, that even when the wedding ceremony has been performed the consummation of marriage should not take place till the girl has attained the age of 16 years."

This measure is the first effort of its kind and I am of opinion that the line of least resistance should be adopted in this matter by all those who want its success. The fixing of minimum age-limit has by no means a binding effect on the higher age. For instance, we see that in several Western countries, the age of consent is much below the age in which marriages usually take place That being so, I think that it is but proper that the views of such a large number of people should not be ignored and that the minimum marriageable age for girls should be fixed at twelve years. If any legal protection be deemed necessary in respect of the consummation of marriage, that might be afforded to the girls by further raising the age of consent. Of course it might be argued that the age of consent clause of the Indian Penal Code is a dead letter. But it must also be recognised that any social legislation if it has to succeed must not be so drastic as to make it wholly unacceptable to a large number of people. I hope, therefore, that those who advocate the raising of the minimum marriageable age of girls higher than 12, would appreciate the difficulties underlying its acceptance and be content with fixing the minimum marriageable age of girls at 12 years. We should wait to see the measure of success that the piece of legislation achieves in this modified form.

GANGANAND SINHA.

The following report of the Select Committee on the Bill further to amend the Indian Life Assurance Companies Act, 1912, for certain purposes, and to provide for the collecting of statistical information in respect of insurance business other than life assurance business was presented to the Legislative Assembly on the 10th September 1928:—

We, the undersigned, Members of the Select Committee to which the Bill further to amend the Indian Life Assurance Companies Act, 1912, for certain purposes, and to provide for the collection of statistical information in respect of insurance business other than life assurance business was referred, have considered the Bill and have now the honour to submit this our report, with the Bill as amended by us annexed thereto.

We accept the Bill practically in its entirety as a useful measure. The only suggestion which we have to make and to which we have given effect is in regard to certain clauses, namely, sub-clause (c) of the proposed new clause (a) to be inserted in section 7 of the Indian Life Assurance Companies Act, 1912 (clause 2 of the Bill) and clause 8 of the Bill which provide for the furnishing of separate statistical information in respect of the Indian business of insurance companies. We consider it would be at the same time more useful and more convenient that the whole of the Indian business of a company, i.e., business effected both in British India and in Indian States, should be shown together. The statements furnished will then present a complete view of the Indian business of the company on the one hand and of its foreign business on the other.

2. The Bill was published in the Gazette of India, dated the 25th August, 1928.

3. We think that the Bill has not been so altered as to require re-publication, and we recommend that it be passed as now amended.
